2014 Report CANCER REGISTRY

At the beginning of 2014 Terre Haute Regional Cancer Registry voluntarily began participating in the Rapid Quality Reporting System (RQRS), a program implemented by the American College of Surgeons' Commission on Cancer (CoC). The objective of the RQRS is to promote and facilitate evidence-based cancer care, enabling accredited cancer programs to report data on patients concurrently, receive notifications of treatment expectations, and present year-to-date concordance rates for each measure. It provides programs with real-time clinical performance information and compares to other CoC accredited programs by state, regional, and national level.

Cancer registrars at participating facilities, abstract the cases and report through a web-based data-collection and reporting technology, positively impacting and promoting the quality of care. RQRS provides users with Year to date performance dashboards and alerts the cancer program if a patient should start treatment, ensuring our patient's don't "fall through the cracks". Currently, the CoC is focusing on 6 primary site measures, 3 for breast, 2 for colon and 1 for rectal cancer. Year-to-date performance dashboards for THRH show the performance rates at 100% for 5 of 6 measurements, and 1 of the measurements at 80.0% for 12 regional lymph nodes removed and pathologically examined for resected colon cancer. The CoC plans to expand the program, adding more disease sites in the future.

In 2013, 319 patients were diagnosed and/or treated at Terre Haute Regional Hospital for a malignancy or benign central nervous system neoplasm. Of the 319 cases, 291 cases were analytical cases and 28 nonanalytical cases.
